GOAL

To design and code a website that showcases the dishes that I have enjoyed in the past years.

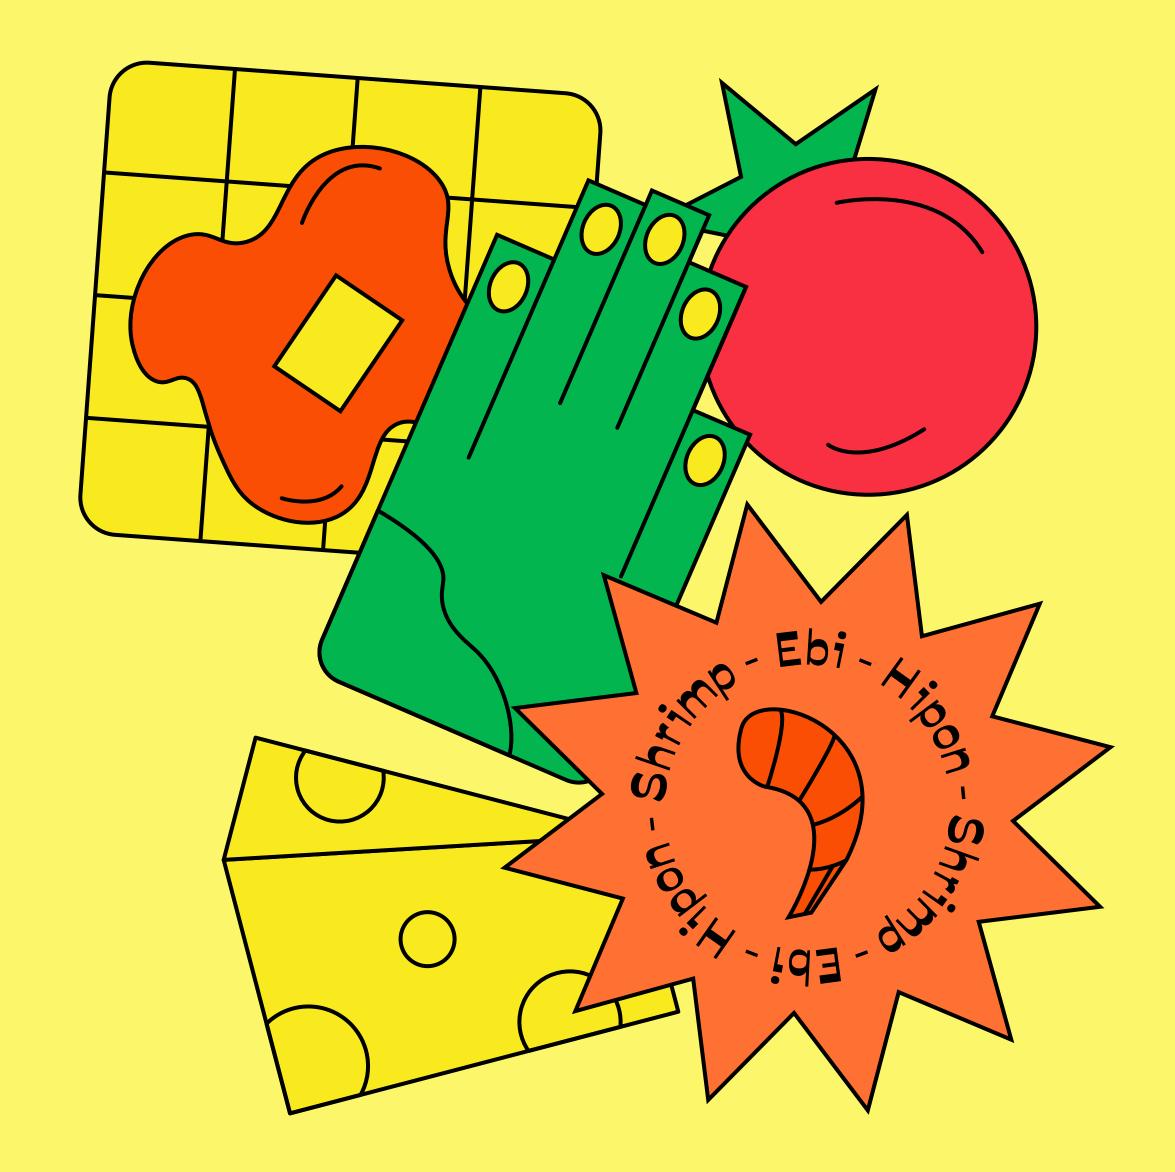

LOGO

The logo used for the favicon is the circular logo representing a plate. Moreover, the logo used on the hero section of the website is the price tagshaped logo.

🛠 The Fat Cow 0 2016

I love chicken and risotto which is why I love this dish. I also like the honey glaze as its sweetness complements the savory taste of the risotto and chicken. I miss this dish. The last time I went to Fat Cow in 2021, I no longer saw this in their menu. Their Umami Chicken was one of the first things I ordered when trying out The Fat Cow and it was one of the reasons why I kept coming back.

If this wasn't the first time I've eaten in Katsu Country, this was definitely one of the earliest times I've eaten there. The Katsu Set comes with cabbage salad which is seen sitting beside the shrimps. It also comes with rice which is in a pink bowl located

Waffle Foldover 🧚 Pancake House

2018 Sometimes, after my family would have Sunday lunch, we would dine in Pancake House for dessert. I would usually order their regular waffles. However, on that certain day, I felt like I want to try something different. As a result, I ordered the Waffle Foldover which is a vanilla ice cream, chocolate syrup, and sprinkles of button-shaped chocolate inside a folded waffle. Eating the Waffle Foldover made me feel like a child again since it is similar with the desserts I enjoyed back in the day. Recently, when I checked Pancake House's website, the behind the plate of shrimps and the miso soup is in a black bowl situated on the right side of the image. The said set became my go-to meal in Katsu Country until I started liking the Pork Tenderloin Katsu Set better. Never was I ever not full after eating in Katsu Country. Thus, if you want to only order one order, but don't want to get easily "sawa" with the meal, definitely order one of Katsu Country's Katsu Sets.

One major revision to the UI design would be the arrangement of the illustrations in the hero section. Instead of having some of the texts rotated, I have decided to keep them unrotated for easier reading.

Moreover, through asking for improvements to the website, I was able to add more padding in between the food icon and text within the accordion.

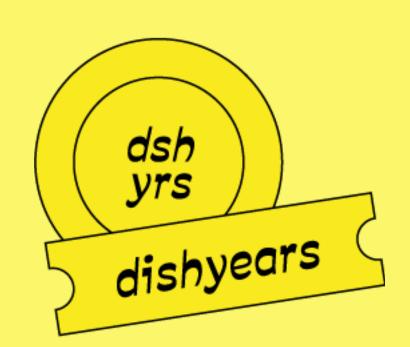

Lastly, some colors were made lighter for clarity when reading the text.
